Are you an interior design company looking to recruit?

Are you a designer looking for a design vacancy?

Are you a freelance designer looking for assignments?

Do you have an interior design business for sale?

DBA is a unique new website dedicated to the international interior design industry, where interior design companies and their related suppliers are able to advertise vacancies, source freelance CAD and interior designers, and advertise design businesses for sale.

REGISTER your vacancy

Your vacancies will be viewed by designers and personnel in the interior design industry.

Designers respond directly to your advertisement, so no commission is payable.

You can also access designers' CV's to find professional designers to fill your vacancies.

REGISTER your CV

Your CV will be viewed by potential employers on an anonymous basis. Your contact details are only provided to an employer once you have given permission.

You can also view interior design vacancies free of charge.
